

I am in support of splitting the 160 meter amateur band into a CW only and a SSB and data only band according to the ARRL band plan. The interference caused by SSB intruding into the recognized CW area is horrible.